

-ED ENDING IN PAST TENSE VERBS

Name: _____

1) Choose the correct option

Mike realized his ambition to start his own business four years ago.

- In this example, the -ed ending sounds like d / t / ɪd

John lived in Fiji last year.

- In this example, the -ed ending sounds like ɪd / d / t

Jenn called off the conference after the bad news.

- In this example, the -ed ending sounds like ɪd / d

Ashley looked forward to New Year's Eve at the beach house.

- In this example, the -ed ending sounds like t / d

She grabbed the child's hand and ran.

- In this example, the -ed ending sounds like t / d

I wanted some coffee

- In this example, the -ed ending sounds like t / d / ɪd

2) Fill in the blanks with the correct -ed ending pronunciation

/ t / - / d / - / ɪd /

Pronounce

after all voiceless consonant sounds: /f, k, p, sh, ch, s, x /, except / t / and / d /.

Pronounce

after / t / and / d /

Pronounce

after all voiced consonant sounds: /b, g, j, l, m, n, r, v, z / and vowels / a, e, i, o, u /

3) Choose the correct pronunciation of the -ed ending of the following verbs:

Laughed
Wanted
Handed
Tried

Washed
Continued
Hoped
Changed

