Advantages

On the [10]_____ hand, wearing a school uniform offers a lot of advantages. For example, it makes all students [11]_____ equal as it covers cheap, old, expensive, and new [12]_____. This makes competition based on academic achievement rather [13]_____ financial status. In addition, it is usually well-designed and makes pupils [14]_____ elegant, which makes them feel [15]_____. Moreover, it helps learners become disciplined and ready to obey more [16]_____ that are good for their personality and studies. Finally, it is a sign that students have a sense of belonging and are [17]_____ of their schools and local community.

Disadvantages

On the [18]_____ hand, wearing a school uniform involves considerable disadvantages. First of all, it sometimes causes [19]_____ issues like an itchy rash on the neck and wrists because it is usually made of synthetic [20]_____. Second, it offers no space for fashion or individual clothing preferences, so some students can [21]_____ bad things to stand out from the crowd. Third, it is often expensive as it is generally not [22]_____ at the beginning of the school year and parents of several kids will feel bad. Last but not least, parents have to buy uniforms for different [23]_____ (general and PE) and [24]_____ (summer and winter). Similarly, they have to keep a spare to use [25]_____ one uniform is being cleaned or repaired.

Conclusion

In short, I find the arguments from both sides quite [26]_____, but I believe the benefits greatly outweigh the [27]_____ as the school uniform is essential to help a generation of learners become more focused on their [28]_____, serious about following the rules [29]_____ proud of belonging to their [30]_____.
