Four numbered circles (1, 2, 3, 4) are overlaid on the top of the software window, indicating the steps for adding text boxes:

1. Click on the 'Text' button in the 'Basic Tools' section of the top toolbar.
2. Click on the 'Text Box' button in the 'Text' dropdown menu.
3. Click on the 'Text Box' library in the 'Libraries' panel.
4. Click on the 'Text Box' button in the 'Text Box' library.
