

1

Read the text.

Alligators live in America. Alligators can have a black, grey colour. Alligators can weigh 360 kg and can get over 4 meters long. They are big, intelligent reptiles. Alligators can live 100 years. Alligators eat almost everything, like fish, cows and snakes. They live in the water; their tail helps them to swim. Alligators are great swimmers and runners.

2

Right or wrong?

Alligators live in Africa.

Alligators are green.

Alligators are very intelligent.

They can live for 100 years.

Alligators eat a lot of things, like cows and snakes.

The tail helps the alligator to swim.

Alligators can run.

They are also good climbers.