

EXERCISE 1 Write the words in the correct order. Pay attention if it is a question, a positive or a negative sentence.

1	you	grow	will	garden	your	own	ever	?
---	-----	------	------	--------	------	-----	------	---

2	have	time	won't	probably	I	.
---	------	------	-------	----------	---	---

3	will	definitely	someday	own	I	grow	food	my	.
---	------	------------	---------	-----	---	------	------	----	---

4	always	a	you	be	will	meat-eater	?
---	--------	---	-----	----	------	------------	---

5	will	yes,	I	definitely	.
---	------	------	---	------------	---

6	eat	I	less	will	beef	probably	.
---	-----	---	------	------	------	----------	---

7	fair-trade	the	will	have	they	coffee	at	market	?
---	------------	-----	------	------	------	--------	----	--------	---

8	won't	no,	they	.
---	-------	-----	------	---

9	market	any	won't	they	the	definitely	have	at	.
---	--------	-----	-------	------	-----	------------	------	----	---

EXERCISE 2 Write the correct auxiliary will or won't to complete the sentences.

1. If you throw a plastic bag away, it _____ probably take 1,000 years for it to decompose or break down.
2. An if you throw away a plastic bottle, it _____ decompose in less than 400 years.
3. The average office worker _____ probably throw away 500 paper cups each year.
4. If we recycle all our newspapers, we _____ have to chop down as many trees.
5. It's important to buy and use items that _____ have a bad effect on the environment.

EXERCISE 3 Match the predictions to the questions.

The oceans will probably be too polluted.

There probably won't be enough meat for everyone.

In the future, do you think more people will eat meat?

What will happen to the price of meat?

Will more people become fish eaters?

Why won't there be any fish?

There probably won't be any fish either.

The price will definitely go up.

EXERCISE 4 Write 5 predictions about your eating habits in 10 years. (Use 5 different verbs)
