

1. Where do you want to live? What kind of house is it?
2. What places are in your ideal neighbourhood?
3. Do you want to live in a city centre? Why / why not?

Task 2. Complete the sentences with the correct words.

L: So, have you watched the last episode of Games of Thrones? Hey, Kara. Trouble at work? What are you thinking about?

K: About my new _____. Finally I have enough money to rent my new flat, buuut...

L: But you can't make a choice?

K: No, I can. Actually, the main problem is Jack.

L: Your boyfriend?

K: Yes. We can't agree on anything! I want to live in a lovely apartment _____ in the city centre. It's perfect for young people! There are lots of clubs and a huge _____ nearby. My work is a ten-minute walk.

L: Good choice. What does he want then?

K: He would like to live in a _____ house in a cozy and quiet area, it is far away from the city centre.

L: No way!

K: Yeah, I'm telling you! He loves that _____, because there are lots of playgrounds, a daycare and a _____. Who cares about these things?

L: Hmm. Let me think. People who want to have children?

K: Ugh. I am too young for that. What do you dream about?

L: I'd love to live in Italy, in a lovely _____, somewhere on the shores of The Ligurian Sea. It is full of sun and it's got two _____, a spacious study, a huge library and a swimming pool.

But also there is a beautiful beach, so I can sit on the white sand, drink wine and watch the beautiful sunset...

K: Sounds romantic. But you can't stand hot weather.

L: Good point. Then let it be a terraced house somewhere in London. There is a _____ just beyond my private garden.

K: I like it!

L: Yeah, maybe I'll someday invite you...
