

Grandma's glasses

Grandma is at Jill's house.
She wants to go home now,
but she can't find her glasses.
'I've got my handbag and I've got my coat.
I've got my toothbrush and
I've got my bike.
But where are my glasses?'
asks Grandma.

I can help!

Let's look on the table and in the cupboard, too!' says Tom.
'No! Your glasses aren't here!
But look! Wow! My robot!
Great!'

'Let's look under the TV and next to the computer,' says Jill.
'No! They aren't here!
But look! Wow! My old ruler!
Great!'

'Let's look next to the armchairs and under the cushions,' says Mum. 'No! Your glasses aren't here! But look! Wow! My red socks! Great!'

'Oh dear! With no glasses, I can't ride my bike!' Grandma says.
'We can drive you home!' Dad says.

'Can we come too?' ask Tom and Jill.
'Yes, you can!' says Dad.

'Thank you,' says Grandma.
'Wow! It's hot in here!'
'Grandma!' Tom and Jill say,
'Your glasses are on your head!'

'Fantastic!' says Grandma.
'Now I can ride home.'
