My Experience on an Elephant Safari

We went on an elephant safari at a place (13) _____ Camp Jubalani in South Africa. They take visitors on safaris twice a day: once in the morning and once at night. Guests can go on as many rides as they like, but they don't let you ride an elephant if you are younger than twelve years old. Luckily, I'm fifteen! On our first safari, I was really scared. I remember thinking we could have gone on a beach holiday instead! As I was climbing on to the elephant, I wondered how I was going to control (14) _____ a big animal. I soon realized that I ought not to have worried so much. They made you sit with an experienced elephant trainer. You can't ride (15) _____ your own. During the trek, we saw giraffes, zebras, lions, and rhinos. My parents took a lot of photos. I would have taken photos myself but I had (16) _____ my camera in my room. I can't remember exactly how long the safaris lasted, but it must have been a couple of hours because we got back just in time for lunch. We stayed at Camp Jubalani for three days and went on four elephant safaris. We could have gone on more than that, (17) _____ on one of the days my mum wasn't very well. Anyway, it was a fantastic holiday. I'd definitely recommend an elephant safari.

Okinawa: A Fine Japanese Holiday Destination

Japan is known as the Land of the Rising Sun, and the red spot on the nation's flag symbolizes the sun. It is an island nation made up of a large archipelago, and each of the numerous islands has its own flavour. Depending on the season, there is always something to be offered for visitors. If you want to live in a big city, definitely head to Tokyo. If you want unspoiled beauty and four full seasons, head northward to Hokkaido. However, if you want the place where you can find summer year-round, then Okinawa is going to be your destination of choice.

Okinawa, the southernmost island of Japan, boasts more than just sandy beaches and incredible seafood. It also has a culture and history that is quite different from the rest of Japan. It is a place where the islanders live some of the longest lives on the earth, and it is also where great battles were fought during World War II. Today it is a travel destination in Japan that is by far one of the best and most worth visiting.

While Okinawa is the main island, there are others that you can travel to. Miyako Island and Kume Island are two great spots to find quiet, beautiful beaches. On all of the islands, you can also try Okinawa specialty foods such as sweet potato dishes and soba, a special type of noodle soup. Many of the dishes are low in fat and low in salt, and their health effects are well-known. After all, more people in Okinawa live to over 100 years old than anywhere else on the earth.
