

Make-Do

1. Write "make" or "do" to complete each expression:

<input type="text"/>	lunch	<input type="text"/>	exercise	<input type="text"/>	a noise
<input type="text"/>	a mistake	<input type="text"/>	business	<input type="text"/>	a complaint
<input type="text"/>	well	<input type="text"/>	a speech	<input type="text"/>	your hair
<input type="text"/>	badly	<input type="text"/>	a profit	<input type="text"/>	homework
<input type="text"/>	a guess	<input type="text"/>	one's best	<input type="text"/>	a joke
<input type="text"/>	progress	<input type="text"/>	the ironing	<input type="text"/>	a course
<input type="text"/>	a favour	<input type="text"/>	harm	<input type="text"/>	a research

2. Choose "make" or "do" to complete each sentence

- 1 Do you want me to a sandwich?
- 2 Did her business a profit last year?
- 3 We have to the list before the shopping?
- 4 Sara really very well in her final exams.
- 5 You have to a lot of exercises to keep fit.
- 6 I can't go for a walk because I have to some chores.
- 7 She a serious research for her project.
- 8 John a lot of money when he worked as a sales manager.
- 9 She didn't any excuses for being late.
- 10 It's hard to business under these conditions.
- 11 You have to a promise that you will never do this again.
- 12 John is a photography course.
- 13 Have you any plans for the next weekend?
- 14 Kate her best to prepare for the exam.
- 15 Wait for me! I just have to my hair.
- 16 She likes to sit and some crosswords from time to time.
- 17 She a living as a digital designer.