AREA: Self-contained
SUBJECT: Self-contained
GRADE: Third Grade
TEACHER: Yesenia Ocando, Camila Padilla, Nathaly Arciniegas, Karen Serrano and Camila Sánchez.

Name: _____ Grade: ____ Date: February ____

KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT: MY INNER ARTIST!

Part 1: English

1. Look at the next words. Select N if it's a noun, V if it's a verb, and A if it's an adjective.

Pizza	Jump	Green	Happy	Small	Cat	See	Fast	Draw	Fly	Cake

2. Read the next statements and select True or False when necessary.

STATEMENT	TRUE	FALSE
Diamond poems have seven lines and a diamond shape.
Diamond poems have nouns, verbs, adjectives and pronouns.
Acrostic poems can't be short.
The first letter of each line in acrostic poems spell out a word.
Diamond poems and acrostic poems are similar.

3. Write an example of each type of sentence. Use proper punctuation.

TYPE	SENTENCE
Declarative
Exclamatory
Interrogative
Imperative

4. Write the correct past form of the verbs and select if they are regular OR irregular.

VERB	PAST FORM	REGULAR OR IRREGULAR?
See
Do
Dance
Cry
Eat

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. Create short present simple sentences with the verbs in positive and negative form. Take into account the pronoun given.

VERB	POSITIVE	NEGATIVE
Play	We	We
Go	I	I
Study	He	He
Like	She	She

Part 2: Math

1. Match the time tables.

7 x 2=	24
4 x 5=	14
9 x 6=	20
3 x 8=	54

2. Solve the multiplication problems and complete the answer.

Caroline made 95 cookies each of 6 different flavors. How many cookies did she make?

x

_____

Caroline baked cookies in total.

James, a taxi driver, works 8 hours per day. He worked 23 days in January. How many hours did he work?

x

_____

In January, James worked hours.

LIVEWORKSHEETS