

1. A bicycle costs $175.

A tricycle costs $70 less than the bicycle.

(a) How much does the tricycle cost?

$$\square \square \square = \square$$

(b) How much do the bicycle and the tricycle cost altogether?

$$\square \square \square = \square$$

2. There were 2548 girls in a water park.

There were 256 more boys than girls in the waterpark.

(a) How many boys were there in the waterpark?

$$\square \square \square = \square$$

(b) How many boys and girls were there in the waterpark?

$$\square \square \square = \square$$

3. Alyara scored 4590 points in a game.

Alisha scored 400 more points than Alyara.

(a) How many points did Alisha score?

$$\square \square \square = \square$$

(b) How many points did Alyara and Alisha score altogether?

$$\square \square \square = \square$$