

1. Read the sentences. Choose the correct one.

They grow in soil, so they cannot move around.

This kingdom includes mushrooms, yeasts, and moulds.

They are very simple microscopic beings.

They eat other living things

We find them in fresh and salt water.

They can be used for medicine, cosmetics, and food

2. Choose the correct option.

- Plants
  - Can move around
  - Cannot move from the soil
  - Only exist in water
- Plants
  - Eat other animals
  - Eat the remains of other living things.
  - Make their own food.

- Funji can be
  - Mould, bacteria or mushroom
  - Grasses or trees
  - Mould, yeast or mushroom
- All bacteria
  - Cause serious diseases
  - Is bad for you.
  - Are microscopic.

3. Choose the parts of the mushrooms.

4. Choose the correct option.

- need humid environments to grow.
- Penicillin is an antibiotic made from
- We use to make bread and other foods.
- can grow on food or other humid places, like walls or floors.

5. Who discovered the penicillin?

6. Match each food with the part we eat of the food.

- |             |          |
|-------------|----------|
| • Carrot    | • Leaves |
| • Lettuce   | • Roots  |
| • Artchoke  | • Fruit  |
| • Asparagus | • Stem   |
| • Tomato    | • Sedes  |
| • Sunflower | • flower |