

WALK YOUR DOG AROUND THE WORLD

Choose the option with the correct ending to the sentence:

- If you embark on a new project, you...
  - are stuck with it
  - start it
  - accept it
- If you put your friends up for the weekend, you...
  - let them sleep in your house
  - are annoyed by their presence
  - hang out with them
- If you stop over in New York on your way to Seattle, you...
  - pass by New York
  - have a layover in New York
  - have a short visit in New York
- If you set off tomorrow afternoon, you...
  - start a journey
  - leave the ground on a plane
  - change the course of your journey
- If you get away for a few days, you...
  - have to hide from someone
  - turn your devices off
  - go somewhere to have a holiday and rest

Use the phrasal verbs and the words in boxes to complete the sentences:

- What do you check before _____ on _____ ?
- How often do you _____ for a _____ ? Does it help you _____ ?
- When you go on a _____, do you ever ask friends to _____ ?
- Have you ever _____ on your way to _____ ? Where? Why?
- Have you ever _____ something huge in order to _____ a new _____ ?

weekend

somewhere

staycation

endeavor

holiday

ditched

rest