_____ hit her like a _____ on a track
Coming towards her
Stuck still no turning back
She hid around corners and she hid under beds
She killed it with _____ and from her made she fled
With every _____ she sank with a drink
And washed it away down the _____ sink

The dog days are over
The dog days are done
The horses are coming so you better run

Run fast for your mother run fast for your father
Run for your children, for your sisters and your brothers
Leave all your love and your longing behind
You can't carry it with you if you want to survive

The dog days are over
The dog days are done
Can't you hear the horses?
cause here they come

And I never wanted _____ from you Except _____ you had
And what was left after that too.

_____, hit her like a _____ in the mind
Struck from a great height
By _____ who should've known better than that

The dog days are over
The dog days are gone
Can't you hear the horses?
cause here they come

Run for your children for your sisters and your brothers
Leave all your love and your longing behind
You can't carry it with you if you want to survive
