UNIT 4. PLANTS

1. Match the sentence halves.

Grasses, such as lemongrass, ...	keep their leaves in winter.
Bushes often have ...	have thin and flexible stems.
A trunk is ...	the thick hard stem of a tree.
Evergreens, such as fir trees, ...	many hard stems.

2. Match photos to the descriptions.

These plants have small needle-like leaves that remain in winter.	These plants have soft stems that are thin and flexible.	These plants lose their leaves in winter.	These plants have hard stems and many low branches.

3. Look and match.

root | flower | fruit | leaf | stem

4. Read and tick True or False.

Most plants have four parts: roots, stems, leaves and hair.	true	false
Deciduous trees lose their leaves in summer.	true	false
Evergreen trees don't lose their leaves in winter.	true	false
Grasses have soft stems which are thin and flexible.	true	false
The stem of a bush is very hard and thick and is called a trunk.	true	false
Cotton grows on a bush with a thick, hard stem.	true	false
Cereals, like wheat, are types of grass.	true	false

LIVEWORKSHEETS