

Journal Reflections

Instructions: Reflect on your personal response to Edgar Allan Poe's "The Cask of Amontillado" in a journal or reflective essay. Consider how the text resonates with your own experiences, beliefs, and values. Use the following guide questions to help structure your reflection:

- Initial Reaction: What were your initial thoughts and feelings upon reading "The Cask of Amontillado"?
- Themes and Messages: Identify the main themes or messages conveyed in the story. Do any of these themes resonate with your own life experiences or beliefs?
- Morality and Ethics: Reflect on the moral and ethical implications of the characters' actions. How do their decisions align or conflict with your personal values?
- Impact and Reflection: What impact did reading this story have on you? Has it prompted any new insights or perspectives? How might it influence your future thoughts or actions?