An interesting job

Hello! I'm Holly and I think our city is a great place to live! Last week I was interviewing Amir. He's an architect in our community.

Holly: Can you tell me about your job?

Amir: I design new buildings. Last week, I was drawing very tall skyscrapers for the city centre. Now I'm designing a shopping centre painted with beautiful colours.

Holly: Do you work with old architecture, too?

Amir: Yes. Lots of people live in traditional houses in this neighbourhood. I help the mayor take care of these interesting buildings.

Holly: What's your favourite place in our city?
