

Unit 6 Lesson 5

1

Listen and read. Then write the words next to the definitions.

Tuesday, March 9th
Dear Miss Eastwood,
I'm sorry Eddie wasn't at school yesterday. He played soccer while it was raining on Friday. On Saturday, he had a cold and a cough. I didn't sleep because he was coughing all night. On Sunday night, he had a bad stomach ache and he was sick. On Monday morning, I found a candy wrapper under his bed. I was so angry, I shouted at him. Now he has a headache, a stomach ache, a cold, and a cough, and I have a sore throat!

From,
Mrs. Banks (Eddie's mom)

sick adjective When you eat lots of candy, you can feel ...

 noun When you eat a lot very fast, you can get a ...

 noun You can't smell when you have a ...

 noun/verb A ... in the throat that sounds noisy.

 noun When you hear very loud and noisy music, you can get a ...

 adjective + noun When you shout a lot, it can give you a ...

2

Listen to the song and write these adjectives in the correct places.

amazing sore good happy exciting interesting sick

I don't have a cold,
A cough, or a headache.
It isn't a _____ throat,
Or a stomach ache.

I'm not really _____,
But I'm not very _____.

I'm missing my friends
And my _____ family.

I want to go home.

Over the mountains,

Over the ocean,

I want to go home.

Back to my town,

Back to my family.

I want to go home.

Yes, I want to go home!

Traveling is _____.

It's very _____.

Seeing the world,

Is very _____, but ...