Read the text and answer the questions:

1. Doing homework is an important part of being a student. It helps us practice what we learn in school and get better at our studies. When you do your homework, you should find a quiet place to work, like a desk or table. Make sure you have all the things you need, like pencils, paper, and your textbooks.

2. Next, read the instructions carefully before you start. If you don't understand something, it's okay to ask for help from a teacher, parent, or friend. Break the homework into smaller parts and do one part at a time. This can make it easier and less overwhelming.

3. After you finish each part of your homework, check it to make sure it's correct. This way, you can fix any mistakes before you move on to the next part. When you're all done, put your homework back in your backpack or folder so you can bring it to school the next day. Remember, doing your homework well helps you learn and do better in school!

1. Based on the text, where is it recommended to do homework?

- A) In a noisy place
- B) On the floor
- C) At a desk or table

2. What should you do if you don't understand something while doing homework?

- A) Keep working without asking for help
- B) Ask a teacher, parent, or friend for help
- C) Skip that part and move on

3. What is the main idea of the text about doing homework?

- A) The importance of studying with friends
- B) How to decorate your study area
- C) Tips for effectively completing homework
