Happy Theatre Company Review

Review of: Cinderella
By: Caroline0206 From: London, England
Rating: ★★★★★

I go to the theatre and watch a pantomime every year in December and Cinderella this year didn't disappoint me! This classic pantomime made me laugh out loud and I'm already excited for next year to see another pantomime with an evil villain.

In this year's production of Cinderella, there were two pantomime dames (the two ugly sisters) and they were so funny. Both were very tall men and they wore amazing costumes with lots of jewellery. The actor who played Cinderella was very small and she sang and danced very well.

My favourite part was when the pantomime horse came on stage. Even though the horse didn't speak, it jumped and danced and surprised the other actors. One of them forgot what was in the script and the director had to come on the stage to help!

I would recommend this pantomime to families and I give it four stars!

- 1 Going to a pantomime is popular in the UK.
- 2 This pantomime has two dames in it.
- 3 The actor who played the main character didn't sing well.
- 4 The pantomime horse forgot what was in the script.
- 5 The director always comes on the stage in a pantomime.
- 6 Caroline thinks that the pantomime is good for families.
