International travel is becoming cheaper, and countries are opening their doors to more and more tourists.

Do the advantages of increased tourism outweigh the disadvantages?

Comments	Introduction
Is the topic addressed in the introduction?	Tick (✓) the box if you think the sentence is wrong.
Has the question been paraphrased properly?	(1) Trips to foreign countries are becoming cost-efficient, and nations are trying to attract to more and more travellers from afar.
Does the thesis statement answer the question?	(2) In my opinion, advantages outweigh disadvantage.

Comments	BODY 1: ADVANTAGES
Does this body have a topic sentence?	Tick (✓) the box if you think the sentence is wrong.
Does this body have an explanation?	(3) On the one hand, the tourism has brought many merit to people.
Does this body have an example?	(4) Firstly, the tourism generate a significant income for the local people and businesses.
Does this body have connectives?	(5) This is because the tourist influx of tourists. (6) There is a surge in demand for various services such as accommodations, transportation, restaurant and so on. (7) Therefore foreign visitors leading to job creation for the local population.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

	(8) Secondly, developing tourism fund the national budget to develop countries and infrastructure. (9) For example, in Vietnam, tourist attractions such as Da Nang, Ha Long Bay and so on. (10) The local people here are involved in tourism through jobs such as tour guides, cameramen. (11) As a result, it create more job opportunities.

Comments	CONCLUSION
Does the conclusion summarise the main points in the essay? Does the conclusion mention any further actions?	(12) To sum up every coin has two sides. (13) Similarly, the tourism has both its benefits and drawbacks. (14) People should take its demerits into account when making their own decisions on this problem

LIVEWORKSHEETS