

1 Read and complete the table.

attacked was taking what when while

Past Simple and Past Continuous with When and While

When two past actions happen at the same time, we use the past simple for the shorter action, and the past continuous for the longer action. We connect the actions with when or while. We use when with the past simple, and we use while with the past continuous.

We often use the past simple and past continuous to talk about an interrupted activity. For example, "I was running when I tripped."

When + Past Simple	I was taking a picture (1)..... I heard the swamp beast. When the kraken (2), we were sailing on the ocean.
While + Past Continuous	While I (3)..... a picture, I heard the swamp beast. The kraken attacked (4)..... we were sailing on the ocean.
Wh- Question	(5)..... were you doing when you saw the giant squid?
