

Directions: Choose the correct adjective(s) for each sentence.

I have been cooking all day, so I am very _____. I made some chicken and many other things. My husband was _____ because I don't normally cook anything. He was very _____ to try my food. After he tried it, he said that it was _____. I felt so _____. I don't think I will cook anything ever again.

I just watched a _____ movie. The main female character had a _____ smile. She is a _____ woman. I was so _____ when the main male character appeared. His performance was _____. Even though he is a _____ man, he's not a very good actor.

I have never liked going to the movies, but my friend is very _____ and I ended up going with her to the movies yesterday. The movie that we saw was so _____. I thought that I was going to die of boredom. The plot was so _____. There were too many characters in the story. It was also very _____. In the end, the main character died.

I am _____ that so many people enjoy watching football. I am _____ by all of the rules. I think it is _____ and when I watched one game I was so _____. I was _____ by how violent the game is and think it is _____ that people are okay with the violence.