GAP FILL

To Because Including

have experienced bullying boy are

According to statistics from Family First Aid, about 30 percent of teenagers in the U.S. _____, either as a bully or a victim. Data suggests that teenage bullying is more common among younger teens than it is among older teens. This is likely because young teens are more vulnerable _____ Physical bullying. Physical bullying is mostly seen with boys _____ teenage girls often favor verbal and emotional bullying. Girls report that they are often the targets of nasty rumors, _____ sexual gossip. Additionally, girls are more likely to use exclusion as a teenage bullying technique than _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS