

Instructor: Prof. Hiram Guerrero

Name:

Date:

Infinitives

Grammar Practice

❖ Infinitives after adjectives

Choose the correct infinitive to fill in the blank.

To see

To tell

To leave

To be

1. I am happy _____ in Mexico
2. I am dissapointed _____ you about your bad grade
3. He is excited _____ you
4. They are sad _____ Mexico

❖ Infinitives after verbs

Choose the correct infinitive to fill in the blank.

To give

To visit

To turn off

To buy

1. I forgot _____ the lights.
2. Mark stopped _____ milk.
3. He remembered _____ her a birthday present.
4. I hope _____ my parents in July.

❖ Infinitives after objects

Choose the correct infinitive to fill in the blank

To make

To prepare

To help

To come

1. He ask me _____ dinner.
2. We told them _____ for the exam.
3. I invited her _____ with me to the store.
4. He wanted me _____ him with the application form.

Choose the correct infinitives to fill in the blanks in the following story.

To talk	To think	To study (2)	To do	To hear	To be (2)
To help	To call	To tell	To dance	To visit	To go

Last Saturday night , Sara and I wanted _____ dancing. However, our plans changed because Sara had something on her mind. Sara left my house _____ her boyfriend. She needed _____ with him. She asked him _____ friends. School and a boyfriend were too much _____ about at the same time. Her parents told her _____ more. It was important for her _____ well in school. Her boyfriend was sad _____ the bad news. He offered _____ her with school. She said he seemed _____ very hurt. She remembered _____ me that night and tell me about their conversation. She said she forgot _____ him about her going _____ in New York next year. She was too emotional _____ with me that night. How sad!

Use the verb and subject to complete the sentences with an infinitive

1. I don't like _____
2. I don't need _____
3. I went to the store _____