

Progress Quiz

Unit 5 “Money Talks”

Modals of advice, prohibition, and obligation.

Choose the best option. Select a, b, or c from the menu in each sentence.

1. You open a bank account before you start university.
a. need b. should c. ought

2. You to be 17 before you can apply for a driving licence.
a. had better b. are allowed c. have

3. At home, I to eat my meals in my bedroom.
a. am not allowed b. can't c. don't have

4. We to the beach yesterday; the weather was much better than today.
a. needed to go b. should have gone c. could have gone

5. They to the station because the train was 10 minutes late.
a. weren't allowed to rush b. couldn't rush c. needn't have rushed

6. Do you think we our neighbours about the party?
a. had to tell b. could tell c. ought to have told

Modal verbs of speculation and deduction.

Choose the correct alternative.

1. My phone must / could be out of charge because it won't allow me to make calls.
2. That house with all the plants in front of it can't / may not be Diana's house: she hasn't got a garden.
3. Henry said he might / must go to the concert but it depends on whether he can get a ticket.
4. The clock must / can't have got broken when the shelf fell down.
5. Lily can't / might not have been the killer in the film because she was somewhere else when it happened.
6. Russell may / must have been the one who sent me the card, but I'm not sure.

→ Remember! Read and check all your answers before clicking the finish button!