

1. Fill in the blanks

Shakespeare is one of the most famous [.....] of the world.

He was born in [.....] in Stratford-upon-Avon in [.....], which is a really pretty town.

He opened the Globe Theatre in [.....] I think, at some stage but.

The main thing, why Shakespeare is so [.....]. In his relatively short life, he produced an enormous body of work. He produced historical [.....], [.....], [.....], [.....], [.....].

He was an extraordinarily prolific [.....].

I think the reason that he is so famous even today, is because...the themes he chose for most of his work were [.....], they're themes that touches us whether we speak English, whether we speak Spanish or Russian, whether we're in the 21st century or the 16th century. They're themes that are [.....], they concern [.....] and have concerned humanity for such a long time.

2. Fill in the Identity Card

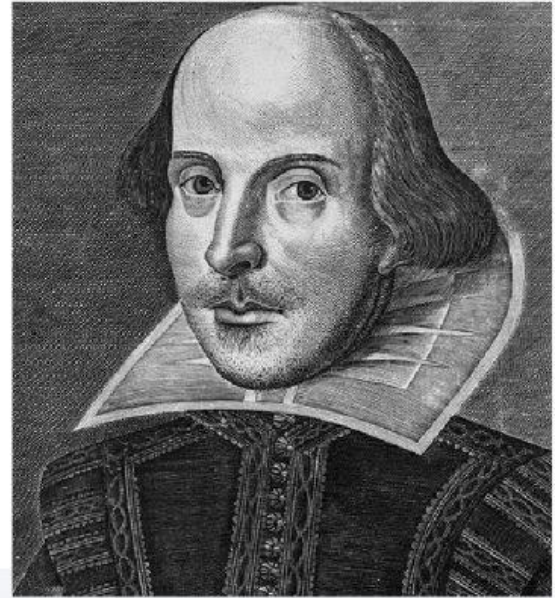

Surname + Family Name:

Born (year):

In (place):

Job:

Type of books:

"Lovely day,
isn't it?"

