

What is the setting of the story?

Once upon a night in a cozy cabin by the street, there lived a young girl named Emily. She had a little kitten named Willy who loved to play with a puppet Emily had made. Every night, before she went to sleep, Emily would sit in her favorite chair and watch Whiskers chase the puppet around the room.

One night, while Emily and Whiskers were playing, they heard a soft tapping on the window. Curious, Emily went to see what it was and found a rabbit outside, looking for shelter from the rain. She quickly opened the window and let the rabbit inside, giving it a warm place to sleep.

As Emily settled back into her chair, she noticed a ribbon tied around the rabbit's neck. Attached to the ribbon was a hidden message. It was an invitation to a lesson on how to paint beautiful candles.

Excited, Emily made her way to the address written on the ribbon. There, she found a group of friendly people gathered around, ready to learn. Together, they spent the night creating colorful candles and solving a puzzle that the instructor had prepared.

As the night came to an end, Emily realized that sometimes, the most unexpected lessons can lead to the greatest adventures. And with a smile on her face, she knew that she would always treasure the memories of this magical night.
