

Fill in the gaps with the words from the box:

permeated herald surge foster surpasses ahead of the game

1. Artificial Intelligence and the Workforce Evolution

Kurzweil predicts that artificial intelligence will have 1) _____ every industry and reshape the nature of work itself. As it will take over routine tasks, the jobs that are highly repetitive or easily automatable may decline, while demand will 2) _____ for positions that require creativity, critical thinking, emotional intelligence, and adaptability. Individuals will need to continually upskill and reskill to remain relevant in the evolving job market, and lifelong learning will become essential for career advancement. AI technologies will also 3) _____ a new era of entrepreneurship. Startups and small businesses will have access to AI tools and platforms, enabling them to be 4) _____ and compete with larger enterprises.

2. AI-Assisted Diagnoses and Treatment Planning:

Using AI-powered diagnostic systems will probably 5) _____ a new era in medical practice. These systems will analyse vast amounts of patient data, medical literature, and treatment outcomes to assist healthcare professionals in accurate diagnoses and treatment planning. AI 6) _____ human ability to process information and will result in quicker and more accurate medical decisions, improving patient outcomes and reducing healthcare costs.

