Edible packaging

In the UK, people ¹refrigerate / grow / throw away 6.6m tonnes of food and drink packaging every year. That's a lot of rubbish! But imagine this: you drink a can of cola and then you ²produce / eat / package the bottle. Not possible? There's already a company that is developing edible packaging. They want to ³recycle / package / eat liquids in a type of balloon that you can later eat. So no more plastic and paper to ⁴recycle / transport / grow. You won't even have to ⁵recycle / refrigerate / produce your drinks because the 'balloon' will keep them cold.
