Harry and his sister, Emma, decided to cook dinner one evening because their mother was in bed. She had a very bad headache. "How about chocolate soup? Let's make that," said Emma. "You can't put chocolate in soup," laughed her brother. "Mum only puts in tomatoes or chicken and other things like that. Let's just make some cheese sandwiches and a chocolate cake." "OK," said Emma. First, Harry made sandwiches. "This is easy," he thought. "Now, we need flour and sugar for the cake, Harry," said his sister. "They're on the top shelf in the cupboard." "OK," said Harry. "I'll get some butter and chocolate too. Mum always puts those in the fridge." "All right," said Emma. "And bring some of the big brown eggs too, please. We need to put twelve in the cake."

Emma mixed everything together in a bowl and then put the cake in the cooker. The children were washing the floor in the kitchen when their father arrived home. "That smells great! What is it?" he said and opened the cooker to look inside. "A lovely chocolate cake!" said the children. "How many eggs did you use?" asked Dad. "Twelve," said Emma. Dad smiled.
