Heidi was very excited. Her friend Clara was coming to visit. Clara was ill and she couldn't walk, so it wasn't easy for her to visit Heidi on the mountain. Heidi couldn't wait for her friend to arrive.

Heidi ran down the mountain to tell her friend Peter about Clara's visit. Peter looked after Grandfather's goats and Heidi liked to help him. Heidi and Peter were usually good friends, but today Peter was worried. Maybe Heidi wouldn't want to be his friend any more when her new friend arrived.

A few days later, Clara finally arrived. Heidi was playing outside when she saw two men carrying a chair up the mountain. A young girl was sitting in the chair. It was Clara. She was wrapped in shawls and she looked very pale and ill. There was an old lady on a horse behind Clara. She was Clara's grandmother. Beside Grandmother, there was a man pushing Clara's wheelchair and another man carrying Clara's luggage. Heidi and Grandfather greeted Clara and her grandmother and soon they were all chatting like old friends.
