

Job Interview: Verb Tenses

Grammar Summary:

Part1. Complete the sample conversation below by filling the gaps with verbs in the appropriate form and tense.

The vacancy being discussed is that of "Assistant Manager" in a clothing shop.

1. Arrival and first chat

- [Interviewer] Hello, are you Ben Grey?
- [You] Yes, hello.
- [Interviewer] I'm Isabelle Hall. I'm the general manager here. How do you do?
- [You] (1).....[to do]
- [Interviewer] Did you find us OK?
- [You] Yes, all fine. I (2) [to take] the train and (3)..... [to walk] from the station.
- [Interviewer] Fine. I understand you've come in to discuss our vacancy for assistant manager?
- [You] Yes, that's right.

- [Interviewer] Great. Why don't you come through and we can have a proper chat.
- [You] Sure, thank you.

2. Questions about your current job

- [Interviewer] I (4) [to have] a chance to look at your CV yet. (5)..... [to bring] a copy with you?
- [You] Yes, here you are.
- [Interviewer] Thank you. I see that currently you (6)..... [to work] at ABC company as a senior sales assistant. What responsibilities (7)..... [to have] there?
- [You] Well, on a day to day basis I (8)..... [to deal] with customers in the shop area and I handle cash and card transactions. However in the last six months I (9)..... (to be given) other responsibilities, like taking customer complaints and supervising stock levels.
- [Interviewer] I see. Have you had any experience with purchasing stock as well?
- [You] Yes, I (10) often [to be asked] to collect input from other sales assistants when the store manager selects new clothing ranges. I (11) [to visit] 3 of our suppliers with him recently and I often speak to them by phone.
- [Interviewer] Great. What (12) [to discuss] with them?
- [You] Usually it's queries about delivery and availability of certain items. But I also often negotiate returns of items that are unsatisfactory or damaged.