

CHOOSE THE CORRECT WORDS TO FILL IN THE BLANKS

1. Despite advancements in healthcare, many people are still unaware of the dangers posed by _____, substances that can increase the risk of cancer when exposed to them regularly.
A. Carcinogens
B. Incidents
C. Prognosis
D. Innards
2. Despite facing numerous challenges in his career, Tom remained _____, believing that things would eventually work out in his favor.
A. stagnant
B. sanguine
C. salient
D. efficacious
3. When preparing a speech, it's essential to highlight the most _____ points to ensure clarity and understanding among the audience.
A. skewed
B. Salient
C. Account for
D. Well-meaning
4. Learning how to _____ your expenses can significantly contribute to better financial management and stability.
A. Cap
B. Invigorate
C. Adherence to
D. Fall under
5. The lack of circulation in the water has led to it becoming _____, posing health risks to those who come into contact with it.
A. Stagnant
B. Parallel
C. malignant
D. skewed
6. Engaging in physical activities can help to _____ your energy levels, making you feel more alert and refreshed throughout the day.
A. Invigorate
B. Insinuate
C. Galvanize
D. Preach
7. The new regulations will come into _____ next month, affecting all businesses operating within the city limits.
A. Dormant
B. Effect
C. Platform
D. Dinosaur
8. His careless actions _____ significant harm on his friend, causing both emotional and physical pain.
A. Inflicted
B. Ostracized
C. Coincided with
D. Accounted for
9. Being _____ debt can be a significant source of stress for many individuals, impacting their financial stability and peace of mind.
A. Skewed with
B. Saddled with
C. Brought to light
D. Contingent upon

10. In some communities, individuals who hold unconventional beliefs or lifestyles may be _____, being excluded or shunned by others.
- A. Locked up
 - B. Ostracized
 - C. Slain
 - D. Lie dormant
11. The success of the project is _____ securing sufficient funding to cover all necessary expenses.
- A. Contingent upon
 - B. Inflicted on
 - C. Saddled with
 - D. Accounting for
12. There's a _____ number of participants in the study, with more males than females, skewing the data analysis.
- A. Stagnant
 - B. Disproportionate
 - C. Cap
 - D. Dozens of
13. After being _____ for years, the volcano suddenly erupted, sending shockwaves through the entire region.
- A. Dormant
 - B. Stagnant
 - C. Sweeping
 - D. meticulous
14. Your vacation plans _____ mine, so we can travel together and share the expenses.
- A. Coincide with
 - B. Adhere to
 - C. Fall under
 - D. Succumb to
15. The teacher took a moment to _____ her students for their hard work and dedication throughout the semester.
- A. Nurture
 - B. Laud
 - C. Preach
 - D. Invigorate
16. She has always been _____ a career in science, showing a natural aptitude and interest in the subject since childhood.
- A. Had a taste for
 - B. Inclined toward
 - C. Emulate
 - D. Saddled with
17. The success of the project relies heavily on the team's _____ the established guidelines and protocols.
- A. Adherence to
 - B. Prognosis of
 - C. Overreach of
 - D. Riddle with
18. The data collected for the study appeared to be _____, with certain factors influencing the results more than others.
- A. Skewed
 - B. Preached
 - C. Lauded
 - D. galvanized

MATCHING

A. jump-start	1. She struggled to her appointments without a planner.
B. meticulous	2. When faced with challenges, sometimes you need toyour approach to find success.
C. riddle	3. The doctor's was hopeful, offering a chance for recovery.
D. nurture	4. Can you solve this.....: "What has keys but can't open locks?"
E. prognosis	5. A strong cup of coffee can your morning and get you ready for the day.
F. preeminent	6. Despite their....., they remained optimistic about finding a solution.
G. keep track of	7. He was known for hisattention to detail in every task he undertook.
H. pivot	8. As aexpert in his field, his opinions were highly valued.
I. plight	9. Plants the category of living organisms that require nurturing care to thrive.
J. fall under	10. It's essential tomeaningful relationships with loved ones, as they fall under the most precious aspects of life.