Sally: Look, Emily! These are our chickens. They lay eggs every morning.

Tom: And that is Bessie, our cow, she is over there. She gives us milk twice a day.

Emily: Wow! Those pigs are so big!

Sally: Yes, those are our pigs. We have twelve of them in total.

Tom: One, two, three... Yes, there are twelve pigs.

Emily: What about those sheep?

Sally: Those are our newest friends. We just got them last week.

Tom: They're still getting used to living here.

Emily: This farm is awesome! I love all the animals.

Sally: We're glad you think so, Emily! Do you want to help feed them later?

Tom: Yeah! We could use your help.

Emily: Yes, please! I love helping.

Sally: Great! Just remember to be gentle with them.

Tom: And this is Charlie, our horse. He's very friendly.

Emily: Can I pet him?

Sally: Of course, just approach him slowly.

Emily: This horse is very soft!

Sally: Well, Emily, if you ever have any questions about the animals, just ask!

Tom: Yeah, we're always happy to teach you about farm life.

Emily: Thanks, Sally and Tom! This is the best day ever!

Sally: We're happy you're having fun, Emily. Let's go and feed the animals together!
