

English 5 Quarter 4 Module 3

Writing Paragraphs Showing Cause and Effect Relationship

A. Read the paragraph carefully. Check all the possible causes from the given effect.

Mrs. Flores is a grade 6 teacher at Baliwag North Central School. She is well respected in her chosen field. Parents, colleagues, pupils and almost everyone in the school idolized her. She is the school paper adviser and has been the coach of several campus journalists who won in the different levels of Press Conferences. Recently, she was chosen as one of Bulacan's Outstanding Teachers.

1. She is a very competent teacher.
2. She is always late in coming to school.
3. She is devoted to her work and loves the children.
4. She never says "no" to any of the tasks given to her.
5. She possesses the qualities of an outstanding teacher.
6. She reaches out to everyone in the school and in the community.

B. Directions: Read the paragraph carefully. Check all the possible effects from the given cause.

Farming is a full-time job. Crops need to be tended well, from tilling the land to taking care of them until they are fully-grown and ready to harvest. Farmers are overworked, stressed and even depressed when things get rough. The lack of rain sometimes, the numerous typhoon that hits the country, the insects and floods are the enemies of the farmers.

1. Crops are destroyed.
2. Crops do not grow well.
3. Crops are sometimes infested.
4. Farmers devote their time in farming to have good produce.
5. Farmers are affected with all the calamities that hit their crops.
6. Farming is never an important factor that will affect the economy of the country.