

1. Choose the correct modal:

1. She looked unhappy when he saw his test results. He (can't / must) _____ have got a good mark.
2. Why are they late? – I don't know. They (might/ can't) _____ have missed the bus.
3. She's really good at playing the piano now. She (must / might) _____ have practised a lot.
4. I don't know who phoned. Maybe it (can't / could) _____ have been that boy we met yesterday.
5. Your eyes were open. You (might / can't) _____ have been asleep!
6. I don't know why she isn't here. She (must / might) _____ have forgotten, or maybe she's ill.
7. They look unhappy. They (must / can't) _____ have won the race.
8. My bike is gone. Someone (can't / could) _____ have stolen last night.
9. He went to the doctor's. He (must / can't) _____ be ill.
10. I (could / must) _____ have seen her. I'm not sure. I don't really remember what she looks like!

2. Rewrite using the correct modal : MUST, CAN'T, MIGHT

1. I'm sure Peter is ill. He hasn't gone to school today. _____
2. Perhaps John is rich, he has got a lot of expensive watches. _____
3. It's possible that they buy the new house. _____
4. It's certain Mary has boyfriend. _____
5. I'm sure Peter doesn't live in a big house. _____
6. Maybe they come to the party tomorrow. _____

3. Look at the pictures. Complete the sentences with the words in the box:

Mustn't smoke	can't play	can't eat	mustn't use	can't play	mustn't drive
---------------	------------	-----------	-------------	------------	---------------

1. You _____
In the classroom.

2. You _____
Fortnite during weekdays.

3. You _____
In the highschool.

4. You _____
Football in the park.

5. You _____
Using your mobile phone.

6. You _____
Mobile phone during an exam.