

Reported Speech Worksheet

Exercise 1: Rewrite the following sentences from direct speech to reported speech:

"I want to travel around the world," said Julia.

Reported: Julia said that _____.

"We have been studying French for two years," they explained.

Reported: They explained that _____.

"I will call you later," he promised.

Reported: He _____.

"We are going to watch a movie tonight," announced Maria.

Reported: Maria announced that _____.

Exercise 2: Application of Reported Speech. Read the following situations and write a reported speech sentence based on each one. Make sure to include the necessary changes to the verb tense, pronouns, and adverbs of time or place.

Situation: Maria said to her friend, "I am going to visit my grandparents next weekend."

Reported Speech: Maria told her friend that _____.

Situation: The teacher announced, "There will be a test on Friday."

Reported Speech: The teacher informed the class that _____.

Situation: Carlos asked his sister, "Have you seen my keys?"

Reported Speech: Carlos asked his sister if _____.

Situation: Laura exclaimed, "I can't believe we won the competition!"

Reported Speech: Laura exclaimed that _____.

Exercise 3: Complete the following sentences using reported speech:

The teacher asked us if _____ (we / do) our homework.

Laura told me that _____ (she / meet) the new student yesterday.

Carlos explained that _____ (he / not / have) time to finish the project.

María reminded me that _____ (I / return) her book.

Exercise 4: Rewrite the following paragraph using reported speech:

Direct Speech Paragraph:

"Yesterday," said Sarah, "I went to the park with my dog. While we were there, we met my friend Lisa. She told me about her upcoming trip to Spain. After spending some time chatting, we walked back home."

Reported Speech Paragraph:

Yesterday, Sarah mentioned that _____. While they were there, _____, Lisa informed Sarah about _____. After spending some time chatting, _____.