

Zadanie 1.

Usłyszysz dwukrotnie cztery wypowiedzi nastolatków na temat urządzania swojego pokoju. Na podstawie informacji zawartych w nagraniu dopasuj do każdej wypowiedzi (1.1.–1.4.) odpowiadające jej zdanie (A–E). Wpisz rozwiązania do tabeli.

Uwaga! Jedno zdanie zostało podane dodatkowo i nie pasuje do żadnej wypowiedzi.

Nagranie znajdziesz na stronie internetowej obok pliku z zadaniami.

- A. My mum chose the theme for my room.
- B. The room combines two different styles.
- C. I decided on a sports theme for my room.
- D. My mum changed her mind and let me be creative.
- E. My whole room has been decorated by a professional.

| 1.1. | 1.2. | 1.3. | 1.4. |
|------|------|------|------|
|      |      |      |      |

Zadanie 2.

Przeczytaj teksty. W zadaniach 2.1.–2.4. z podanych odpowiedzi wybierz właściwą, zgodną z treścią tekstu. Zakreśl literę A, B albo C.

2.1. Helen's message is about

- A. her motorbike.
- B. her holiday.
- C. her success.

| Message                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                  |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| From:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Bernard Rodney   |
| To:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Anne Johnson     |
| Subject:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | George's absence |
| Dear Mrs Johnson, I am your son's Maths teacher. I am worried because George has been absent from school for three days. I'd like to inform you that on Monday there is a Maths test and if George comes to school this week, I can give him some extra help. Please phone me or e-mail me. Best regards, Bernard Rodney |                  |

2.2. Mr. Rodney is writing to Mrs. Johnson

- A. to suggest George should work with a classmate.
- B. to ask her to contact him.
- C. to present George's test results.

2.3. Robert won't visit Alice because

- A. he is in hospital.
- B. he has a health problem.
- C. his grandma is sick.

| Message                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |              |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| From:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Robbie       |
| To:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Peter        |
| Subject:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | My new place |
| Hi Peter, I'm writing to tell you I don't like my new place. Quite a lot of cars drive along the street making lots of noise. The old house was smaller, but I had a bigger room there. And there were so many small shops nearby. Here we've only got an ugly supermarket at the end of the street. But do come and visit me soon. Robbie |              |

2.4. Robbie's new house is situated

- A. in a busy street.
- B. close to lots of shops.
- C. far from a supermarket.