

Lightning hits the umbrella and the electricity goes to Clunk.

Grandpa, Clunk and the children go to the mountains.

The wire breaks and Clunk catches it.

The children catch Clunk with the picnic blanket.

Grandpa has an idea. He ties some wire to his umbrella.

Clunk comes in the van. The van hits a rock and now it doesn't start.

There is a storm. They can see lightning and hear thunder.

Clunk puts the umbrella on a big rock.

They go home and Clunk isn't slow now.

Then the electricity goes from Clunk to the van and the van starts.
