

Using Articles and Quantifiers

	Count Nouns		Non-count nouns
	Single	Plural
the	Specific Example: The student is going home.	Specific - meaning that group Example: The children are in the house.	Specific Example: The mail is late today.
a/an	General Example: A student sat down.	Not used!	Not used!
No article (-)	Not used!	General - meaning all Example: Children study in school.	General Example: Mail is put in mailboxes.
Other quantifiers	one	a lot of some a few many several	a lot of some too much a little a bit of _____ students go to classes. _____ students are in my class.

Let's practice! Choose the correct answer below: a, an, the, -, or another quantifier.

_____ soup is very hot. You spilled _____ soup on the table.

Do you want to watch _____ movie with me?

I thought _____ movie was very interesting.

Are _____ dogs in the house right now? I see _____ dog at the park.

Can you hand me _____ eraser that's next to you? I need _____ eraser for my assessment.

_____ erasers are on the tops of pencils.

_____ chocolate cake looks delicious! I want to order _____ piece of chocolate cake please.