

LISTENING COMPREHENSION - MATURA PR

 10 Usłyszysz dwukrotnie wywiad na temat tendencji w nauczaniu języków obcych w Stanach Zjednoczonych. Z podanych odpowiedzi wybierz właściwą, zgodną z treścią nagrania. Zakreśl literę A, B, C albo D.

- 3.1. What has been changing about Chinese heritage schools in America?
- A. Chinese-American parents are choosing them over public schools.
 - B. More and more adults have been enrolling for evening classes.
 - C. Economic growth has led to their expansion all over America.
 - D. Non-Asian students have become more common at them.
- 3.2. One explanation for the rise in interest in US Chinese heritage schools is that
- A. Americans want to learn more about Eastern culture.
 - B. more Americans are raising children from China.
 - C. Chinese-Americans don't use Mandarin in their homes.
 - D. 25% of students at the schools are non-Asian.
- 3.3. Which is true about the Chinese American International School in San Francisco?
- A. Since 2012, it has started accepting non-Asian students.
 - B. Students choose in which language they learn a subject.
 - C. Only half of its students speak English when they enrol.
 - D. Students who come from Chinese families are a minority there.
- 3.4. The city of Chicago is used as an example in the report because
- A. in hundreds of schools there, Mandarin is compulsory.
 - B. other parts of America are trying to be equally successful.
 - C. most schools offer some form of Mandarin provision there.
 - D. it has seen a dramatic rise in enrolments for Mandarin classes.
- 3.5. In the interview, Mary
- A. talks about an emerging trend in American education choices.
 - B. recommends particular Chinese heritage schools to attend.
 - C. describes the negative effect of non-Chinese pupils on Chinese heritage schools.
 - D. provides listeners with practical tips on getting into Chinese heritage schools.