

What are your first arrangements for next weekend?

Next weekend, I'm planning to relax at home. I've had a busy schedule lately, so I'm looking forward to doing things I enjoy. I might cook for friends on Saturday night. On Sunday, I'll likely go for a swim to refresh.

This weekend, I'm attending a wedding reception on Saturday, which I'm excited about. On Sunday, I'm planning to visit relatives who I haven't seen for 5 months.

Next summer, I'm hoping to go camping with friends. I'm excited to experience the outdoors and connect with nature. We're planning to go to a nearby campsite and spend a few days hiking, swimming, and roasting marshmallows over a campfire.
