

Directions: Let's make a paragraph today.

Write the title here

By: _____

In the story, Heather was always the first person to help someone in the class was sad. If you were Heather, what will you do to show compassion? In school, if one of your classmate is feeling sad because left her food at home, what will you do? When arriving home, you saw that your little sister is feeling upset that she cannot reach the toy that she liked, what will you do? In the playground, there is a boy who is crying because the other kids are not allowing him to join, what will you do?

In the story, Tommy liked to help people when they needed it. If you were Tommy, what will you do to show compassion?
