

9

Possessive Adjectives

Singular	Plural
I → my	we → our
you → your	you → your
he → his	they → their
she → her
it → its

- Possessive adjectives show:
 - a) that something belongs to somebody.
This is my book.
 - b) the relationship between two or more people.
She is our grandmother.
- We put possessive adjectives before nouns.
This is his desk.

- 1 Complete the table. Translate into your language.

Possessive Adjectives
1 I – ...my.....	6 we – ...our.....
2 you – your.....	7 you – your.....
3 he – his.....	8 they – their.....
4 she – her.....
5 it – its.....

- 2 Write the possessive adjectives.

- This bicycle belongs to me. It's ► my bicycle.
- That dog belongs to Tim. It's dog.
- These hats belong to my mother. They're hats.
- This computer belongs to my brother and me. It's computer.
- Those paintings belong to my family. They're paintings.
- That lamp belongs to your family. It's lamp.
- Those towels belong to me. They're towels.
- That car belongs to Philip and Mary. It's car.

- 3 Fill in, as in the example.

- His (he) cat is black and white.
- (we) flat is not very big.
- Mary, is this (you) dress?
- (they) house is very small.
- (she) mother is a singer and (she) father is an actor.

- 4 Underline the correct word in bold.

- My/I name is Samantha.
- They/Their house is on Wilson Avenue.
- New Zealand is a beautiful country. Its/It capital is Wellington.
- Our/We living room is very big.
- Is this you/your pen?
- He/His desk is over there.
- She/Her favourite sport is basketball.
- I/My birthday is in April.

Speaking

Work in pairs. Mix up your pencils, rulers, pencil cases and books, etc, then sort them out.

- A: This is my eraser.
B: Yes, and these are your pencils.