

Guided Writing

PRACTICE 1

You are inviting your friend, Amy to watch a film with you on Saturday.
Write an email to Amy.

In your email, tell her:

- to meet you at the cinema
- what time you will meet her
- how she can get there

Write about 30–50 words.

Write your email below using the phrases provided. HOTS

this Saturday at noon

new superhero film

Please call me tonight

a bus stop and train station

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| To:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | amy@xmail.com      |
| Subject:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Let's watch a film |
| The (1) _____ is out. Lets go to the cinema         (2) _____. The cinema is near (3) _____         _____, so you can get there by bus or train.         (4) _____ to let me know if you want to go. Your friend,         Lisa |                    |

PRACTICE 2

You are asking your brother, Fariz to buy some flowers for your mother on Mother's Day. Write a message to Fariz.

In your message, tell him:

- to buy a bouquet of carnations
- where he can buy the flowers
- when you will give him the money

Write about 30–50 words.

Write your email below using the phrases provided. HOTS

surprise Mum with some gifts

just around the corner

give you the money

a bouquet of carnations

Dear Fariz,

Mother's Day is (1) _____. I want to (2) _____. Can you please buy (3) _____ at Happy
Flower Shop on Saturday morning? I will (4) _____
_____ on Mother's Day. Thanks.

Siti

PRACTICE 4

You are asking your classmate, Roshni to help you study for the exam. Write an email to Roshni.

In your email, tell her:

- why you need her help
- what subject you need her help with
- where you want to meet

Write about 30–50 words.

Write your email below. HOTS

[illegible]

PRACTICE 5

You are inviting your friend, Suresh to have lunch with you at a new restaurant.
Write a message to Suresh.

In your message, tell him:

- where the restaurant is
- the type of food it serves
- a dish you would like to try

Write about 30–50 words.

Write your message below. HOTS

