D. Reading and Speaking

Read Joanna's story, listen to the questions and answer

I lived, I loved, I cried...

I stayed at a hotel the first night. In the morning, I bought a map and went to see the university, and I rented a room in a house. I walked through the city to my classes every morning. Italian men said, "Ciao bella!" I liked it!

I spoke a little Italian from school, but when I arrived in Rome I couldn't understand people. I spoke English or Polish with other Erasmus students. But then I started going to Italian classes, and I also made friends with some Italians. They helped me a lot! After three months, I could speak pretty well. Another problem was that Rome is very expensive, but I found a job in an Irish pub, and I worked three evenings a week.

I learned a lot about Italy and Italians. You can't start the day without "un caffè." Italian food is the best in the world, but don't ask for ketchup! And the number one topic of conversation is politics and soccer.

Erasmus changed my life. I lived a different life in a fantastic city. I met new people from all over the world and made some wonderful friends. I learned to understand another culture. Of course it wasn't all perfect. Living in another country isn't easy, and an Italian man broke my heart!

I came back from Italy a year ago, but a small part of me stayed in Rome. I drink espresso every morning, eat a lot of pasta, and I use my hands a lot when I speak. Now I feel European, not only Polish!
