2) Look at the picture. Then read the statements below, and finally write the correct number in the corresponding box into the illustration of the statement. (8 points)

1. It is located in the lower left part of the window and displays information about the status of the current window.
2. It lets you navigate through different values. You can either click the arrows or drag the slider to move.
3. It is the action of highlighting a word or text by double-clicking and dragging to where it is desired to be highlighted.
4. Is an indicator used to show the current position on a computer monitor or other display device that will respond to input.
5. This is vertical scrolling. It allows you to move up and down the content on a webpage.
6. Is a panel with icons that gives you quick access to frequently used functions in a program.
7. It is the scrolling that is done from the bottom to the top within the page that is being worked on.
8. Displays additional items when you hover your mouse over or click on one of its items. This option allows the menu to stay clean and organized.

LIVEWORKSHEETS