Word formation

1. Talking on the phone loudly in a public place is a(n) _____ (SOCIAL) habit. It irritates people.
2. The two groups agreed to _____ (OPERATE) with each other in the project.
3. Learners can feel very _____ (COURAGE) if an exercise is too difficult.
4. It was totally _____ (PRACTICAL) to think that we could finish the job in two months.
5. Jim is _____ (PAY) for what he does. Kevin does more but doesn't earn a half of Jim's salary.
6. In 1968, the first _____(SONIC) airliner took flight.
7. _____(DENY), it was the best holiday ever!
8. He was a great writer but felt _____(RATE) by the audience.
9. Mary is going to do other _____(SCIENCE) research soon.
10. The ship drifted into Turkish _____(TERRITORY) waters.
11. The village looks quiet and _____(PEACE).
12. I don't see the _____(RELEVANT) of your question.
13. After so many years she was still instantly _____(RECOGNIZE).
14. The booklist at the end of the chapter contains some _____(INTRODUCE) reading on the subject.
15. Be a good boy and try not to _____(SAD) me next time.

Vocab

condemned	facilitate	browse	get away	stick at	cover up
gullible	struggle	hurdles	must-have	passing trend	the radar

1. Bell-bottoms seem to be on _____ again.
2. Nothing can _____ learning better than games.
3. There are a lot of _____ to overcome before the contract can be signed.
4. Everyone thinks he's guilty of the robbery, but it looks like he's going to _____ with it.
5. The movie was _____ for glorifying violence.
6. The iPod quickly established itself as a _____ device.
7. The company tried to _____ its employment of illegal immigrants.
8. They sell overpriced souvenirs to _____ tourists.
9. The people of this country will continue in their _____ for independence.
10. I know it's hard learning to drive but _____ it.
11. Considering the current rate of adoption, artificial intelligence is in no way just a _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS