

Second Term Writing (9V)

1 Complete the sentences with the words in the list.

- rosy • tanned • athletic • oval • full • hazel • hooked • straight

- Nick plays a lot of sports so he has a(n) build.
- Tina has pretty eyes and a(n) face.
- My sister's baby is chubby with cheeks.
- Monica has long hair.
- Mike has a(n) nose like his grandfather.
- After spending the summer at the beach, Jill has a(n) complexion.
- Kendra has big eyes and lips.

2 Choose the correct item.

- The women of the tribe fruit and berries.
A raise B hunt C gather D get
- Nature the tribe with everything they need.
A attaches B gives C fills D provides
- The Hazda tribe don't track of time.
A hold B keep C have D make
- The Hadza the valley in search of food.
A walk B wonder C run D wander
- Joan has recently the Yanomami tribe.
A worked B learned C revised D studied
- The tribe usually their free time telling stories.
A waste B spend C pass D lose

3 Match the adjectives to what the people say.

- polite vain responsible insecure carefree brave bossy
- "Tim is often unsure of himself and lacks self-confidence." _____
 - "You can always count on Mary to get the job done." _____
 - "Tina likes being in charge and telling others what to do." _____
 - "Mike doesn't seem to worry about anything," _____
 - "Dan's children always say please and thank you." _____
 - "Kevin isn't afraid of anything." _____
 - "Lisa is always looking at herself in the mirror." _____

4 Complete the text with the correct present form of the verbs in brackets.

Kobi and Gabi Klaf and their three children are not an ordinary family. Originally from Israel, they 1) (travel) continuously for the past three years! So far, they 2) (visit) 16 countries and plan to see many more. The Klafs are a modern-day nomadic family, who never 3) (stay) in the same place for more than six months. Wherever they go they try to adapt to the local culture. Although the family 4) (not/return) home for a long time, they don't mind as they always 5) (have) amazing experiences on their travels. Over the years, the Klaf children, Dahnya, 10, Orazi, 9 and Solai, 7, 6) (attend) local schools in many different countries. At the moment, though, they 7) (do) their school work at home with their mother as their teacher. After all, it 8) (be/not) easy to find a school in the Ecuadorian jungle!

5 You have had a class discussion on the importance of family. Now your teacher has asked you to write an essay expressing your opinion on the following: Family is more important than friends. Write your essay (120-180 words) giving reasons to support your point of view.